COUNTY SUPERVISORS.—The County Supervisors met to-day with all the members and a large number of residents of the county present. —Richmond Dispatch.

The clerk was directed to communicate with President Abbot, of the electric railway, and request him to have Chadwick avenue at Rosslyn put and kept in proper condition. —Richmond Dispatch.

Mr. M. B. Harlow appeared before the board in reference to the completion of Mr. Vernon avenue and the board adopted a resolution requesting the Representative in Congress from this district and the Virginia Senators to wait on the Secretaries of War and Agriculture and urge them to have the road from Rosslyn to the Columbia turnpike, east of Arlington cemetery, put in good condition and kept so. This piece of road would form a part of Mr. Vernon avenue. —Richmond Dispatch.

Warrants for several thousand dollars for road work were drawn. —Richmond Dispatch.

RAILROAD MISSION NOTES.—A large crowd attended the service in the auditorium yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Charles H. Marshall, of the Seminary, conducted the service, assisted by Mr. J. M. Owens. Miss Lullie Rathbone sang a beautiful solo. After service the workers met and heard from the Crittenden Mission through its Superintendent, Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett. The workers decided to co-operate with Evangelist Charles Crittenden in the series of meetings to be held in Tinty M. E. Church on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Frank H. Caldwell, President of the Baptist Young People's Union, will have charge of the service in the Reading Room to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is invited. —Richmond Dispatch.

FOX HUNT.—A number of gentlemen engaged in a fox hunt west of this city on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Courtland Smith's hounds were used in the chase and the fox was caught and killed in a pen in front of Mr. George Wise's back fence, on Seminary Hill. During the chase one of the participants, Mr. Dave Porter, of Fort Myer, was seriously hurt by an accident which befell him. His horse fell on him a short distance from the Theological Seminary and kicked him in the head and inflicted other injuries. —Richmond Dispatch.

Mr. M. B. Harlow has sent to Congress a copy of the Mount Vernon Avenue bill, which Mr. Harlow will introduce in Congress at once. —Richmond Dispatch.

A number of relatives in this city of the late Mrs. Maria L. Key, who died in Baltimore on Friday, attended the funeral which took place in that city to-day. —Richmond Dispatch.

A public temperance meeting will be held at the Baptist Church to-morrow night under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., in memory of Rev. John R. Mohr, the temperance advocate of Virginia. —Richmond Dispatch.

The committee on poor of the City Council has awarded the contract for furnishing wood to the poor to Mr. T. J. Fannon at $3.43 per cord. There were five bidders, the highest being $4.25. —Richmond Dispatch.

Yesterday was a bright day and unusually mild for this season of the year. The clouds were all fairly well away, but the number of strangers in the city was not large. The day was a quiet one. —Richmond Dispatch.

A colored excursion party from Richmond came here Saturday night and returned to-day. To-day a large number of excursionists from Lynchburg arrived here and many of them went on to Washington. —Richmond Dispatch.

A little child was knocked down on St. Asaph street, near King, Saturday night, and quite painfully injured about the head. He was cared for by Mr. Will Wood, and when he recovered sufficiently he departed for his home. —Richmond Dispatch.

The children of Mr. Washington Dameron, of Washington, were on Saturday night given a very delightful dance and party at the residence of their grandfather, Mr. J. R. Emott, on King street. The young people spent a most enjoyable evening. —Richmond Dispatch.

Policeman Roberts found a little child wandering about the streets at a late hour Saturday night. The child could give no information as to who it belonged, but later it was found that it lived on Patrick street, and was a daughter of Mrs. Payne. —Richmond Dispatch.

The funeral of the late Dr. E. W. Slaymaker, who died in Alexandria on Saturday, took place from the residence of his brother, on Pitt street, in this city, this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Thacker. The interment was private. —Richmond Dispatch.

A meeting of colored people was held yesterday afternoon in memory of the late John M. Lenzton. The meeting was held at Shaw Chapel. Rev. R. B. Robinson presided and speeches were made by J. M. Hopkins, Edmund Hill, W. C. Payne and Augustus W. Lumpkins. —Richmond Dispatch.

The dwelling of Mr. Charles Herbert on south Columbus street, near King, was entered at an early hour yesterday morning by a white robber carrying a dark lantern. He opened many drawers and stole $5 from one of them. Mr. Herbert, hearing a noise, rose and, seeing the man just leaving the house, fired at him, but it is not known whether the shot took effect. —Richmond Dispatch.

The Chapter of Mercy of St. Paul's Church held a meeting on Wednesday morning at the chapel on Pitt street, where, between the hours of eleven and one o'clock, they will be glad to receive donations of money, clothing and groceries. These contributions will be distributed among the sick and aged poor, and those who need to obtain work, are compelled to ask for assistance. —Richmond Dispatch.

Some excitement was caused on south Fairfax street this morning by a fight which occurred between two young men who are storekeepers. The trouble originated from a misunderstanding in a business transaction. The belligerents had the battle brought to an abrupt termination by the arrival of two policemen on the scene who took the two customers to the station house. —Richmond Dispatch.

Policeman Knight yesterday evening arrested Dan Corbin, colored, on a charge of selling liquor without a license. Information came to the officer that Corbin had been doing an illegitimate business for some time. It seems that Corbin had several persons arrested a day or so ago on a charge of selling liquor. The Mayor has ordered the arrest of his property, and his arrest seems to be a retaliation. It is morning he was fined $10. —Richmond Dispatch.

Under orders from Mayor Simpson, instructions were last night issued to the policemen by Lieut. Smith to arrest all strangers and tramps caught on the streets after twelve o'clock at night who cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves. This is done to break up the temporary lodgings in this city, and as a result of the order several were brought to the station house last night at a late hour and locked up. Tramps are unusually thick in this section just now, and it is not considered safe for any one to venture forth at a late hour in the suburbs. —Richmond Dispatch.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Trading was quite animated at the opening of the stock market and gains were the rule, with the exception of a few specialties. A number of stocks gained nearly a point and others more than a point, including Baltimore and Ohio. —Richmond Dispatch.

Alexandria Market, Dec. 13.

The market opened quiet with light offerings of grain and few sales; quotations remain unchanged. The market is steady. —Richmond Dispatch.

There were no changes to note in quotations since the close of last week. —Richmond Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—There was a better feeling shown at the opening in wheat to-day, May starting, a shade higher at 91 1/2 and advancing at one to 91 3/4. The market then became dull but comparatively firm fluctuating between 91 1/2 and 91 3/4. There was very little doing in December, quotations ranging from $1.05 to $1.04 1/2. Corn was quiet but fairly steady. May opened 1 1/2 low, at 23 1/2 and advanced to 23 3/4. Oats were dull but firm. May Pork opened 65c higher at $8.62 1/2 and sold at $8 1/2 and 65c.
